ALVIN K. HELLERSTEIN, U.S.D.J.:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 35(a), I sua sponte amend Defendant Domingo Beato-Estrella's sentence of February 5, 2025 in two respects.

First, I amend Defendant's sentence of incarceration as to Count Two of Indictment 20 Cr. 324 (bail jumping) from 120 months' imprisonment to run consecutive with all other counts, to time served.¹ For each of the other counts of conviction, I sentence Defendant to 188 months' imprisonment, to run concurrently. This amendment does not disturb the aggregate 188 month sentence I previously imposed at Defendant's sentencing hearing.

Any carceral sentence imposed for bail jumping "shall be consecutive to the sentence of imprisonment for any other offense." 18 U.S.C. § 3146(b)(2); see also United States v. Kirkham, 195 F.3d 126, 131 (2d Cir. 1999) (the consecutive sentencing requirement of this statute is only applicable if the court imposes a sentence of imprisonment, which it need not impose). Though the offense of bail jumping committed where, as here, the underlying crime is punishable by a term of imprisonment of 15 years or more contains a statutory maximum sentence of 10 years, see 18 U.S.C. § 3146(b)(1)(A)(i), the Guidelines calculation which the parties stipulated to in their plea agreement, and which I adopted at sentencing, adequately takes into account the Defendant's conduct of failing to appear and absconding as a fugitive from justice.

Second, I amend Defendant's sentence of supervised release as to Count Two of Indictment 20 Cr. 324 from four years to three years. Since this Count is a Class C felony, see 18 U.S.C. § 3559(a)(3), the statutory maximum term of supervised release that I may impose as to this Count is three years. 18 U.S.C. § 3583(b)(2). The four-year term of supervised release I imposed as to Count One of Indictment 20 Cr. 324, and the five-year term of supervised release I imposed as to Counts One and Two of Indictment 24 Cr. 520, to run concurrent with all other terms of supervised release, as well as the conditions of supervised release, remain intact.

The balance of the Defendant's sentence remains undisturbed by this Order.

SO ORDERED.
